Very nice paint on that Cobra. I am curious, which of the two do you like driving more? Is that Talon one of the turbocharged ones?

Yea thats why i came over here i was tired of the springfield vs lebanon drama. as for which one i like driving more i havent got the chance to drive the talon yet i just got it and the clutch isnt disengaging all the way so i had to pull the tranny after i bled and bled the mster cylinder and slave cylinder. but im sure the talon will be a blast to drive as it has a 61mm turbo on it with some other goodies.

The two best days in the life of a man that buys a black car:

The day he buys it, and the day he sells it.

^^true story

When they are clean, they look damn good. But, they show every damn imperfection that they have.
